BIO

Before becoming New Zealand's first Chinese comedy hypnotist, Haiming Jiang was confidence coach and spoke in a numerous parenting, marriage, communication skill seminar and workshop both online and offline. He has a very popular YouTube channel and has clients from all over the world. He is a certified NLP Master Practitioner, certified NLP Instructor, and professional member of The New Zealand Association of Neuro Linguistic Programming (NLP).

In 2017, Haiming decided to utilise his skill of hypnosis for entertaining purpose. He performed at the Global Speakers Summit in SkyCity Convention Center and the Chinese New Year Gala 2018. He has also performed at various Auckland schools and civic organisations. Haiming grew up in China and moved to New Zealand as a young man. His unique cultural background, understanding of Aotearoa, and considerable entertainment skills make him the perfect person to tastefully demonstrate the benefits of hypnosis through audience participation.
